

Self & Cultural Awareness Assess minimum of 3 elements	Advanced (4) Effectively addresses significant issues in the natural and human world based on articulating ones identity in a global context.	Proficient (3) Evaluates the global impact of one's own, and others' specific local actions on the natural and human world.	Adequate (2) Analyzes ways that human actions influence the natural and human world.	Limited (1) Identifies some connections between an individual's personal decision-making and certain local and global issues.	Inadequate (0) Fails to make connections between the individual actions and any local or global issues.
Perspective Taking	Evaluates and applies diverse perspectives to complex subjects within natural and human systems in the face of multiple and even conflicting positions (i.e. cultural, disciplinary, and ethical). Language in presentation is appropriate to audience.	Synthesizes other perspectives (such as cultural, disciplinary, and ethical) when investigating subjects within natural and human systems.	Identifies and explains multiple perspectives (such as cultural, disciplinary, and ethical) when exploring subjects within natural and human systems.	Identifies multiple perspectives while maintaining a value preference for own positioning (such as cultural, disciplinary, and ethical).	Fails to identify any other cultural, ethical or disciplinary perspectives other than his or her own
Cultural Diversity	Adapts and applies a deep understanding of multiple worldviews, experiences, and power structures while initiating meaningful interaction with other cultures to address significant global problems.	Analyzes substantial connections between worldviews, power structures, and experiences of multiple cultures historically or in contemporary contexts, incorporating respectful interactions with other cultures.	Explains and connects two or more cultures historically or in contexts with some acknowledgement of power structures, demonstrating respectful interaction with varied cultures and worldviews.	Describes the experiences of others historically or in contemporary contexts primarily through one cultural perspective, demonstrating some openness to varied and cultural worldviews.	Lacks openness to varied worldviews or other cultures.
Personal & Social Responsibility	Takes informed and responsible action to address ethical, social, and environmental challenges in global systems and evaluates the local and broader consequences of individual and collective interventions.	Analyzes the ethical, social, and environmental consequences of global systems and identifies a range of actions informed by one's sense of personal and civic responsibility.	Explains the ethical, social, and environmental consequences of local and national decisions on global systems.	Identifies basic ethical dimensions of some local or national decisions that have global impact.	Cannot recognize one's ethical and moral responsibilities to society or the role of power relations in society.
Understanding Global Systems	Uses deep knowledge of historic and contemporary role and differential effects of human organizations and actions on global systems to develop and advocate for informed, appropriate action to solve complex problems in the human and natural worlds.	Analyses major elements of global systems, including their historic and contemporary interconnections and the differential effects of human organizations and actions, to pose elementary solutions to complex problems in human and natural worlds.	Examines the historical and contemporary roles, interconnections, and differential effects of human organizations and actions on global systems within the human and natural worlds.	Identifies the basic role of some global and local institutions, ideas, and the processes in the human and natural worlds.	Fails to identify the roles of institutions or actors in a broader global system.
Applying Knowledge to Contemporary Global contexts	Applies knowledge and skills to implement sophisticated, appropriate, and workable solutions to address complex global problems using interdisciplinary perspectives independently or with others.	Plans and evaluates more complex solutions to global challenges that are appropriate to their contexts using multiple disciplinary perspectives (such as cultural, historical, and scientific).	Formulates practical yet elementary solutions to global challenges that use at least two disciplinary perspectives (such as cultural, historical and scientific).	Defines global challenges in basic ways, including a limited number of perspectives and solutions.	Unable to define global challenges or potential solutions to those challenges.
